BRIEF AND BREEZY. AFFAIRS OF THE CITY.

Hon. William Corlett, ex-postmaster of Toledo, O., is in the city on a brief visit. Yesterday's clearings were $28,32, as compared with $188,729 for the same day of last year.

John T. Fogarty, special agent and adjuster for the Royal and Norwich Union Fire Insurance company, is in the city on special business. His headquarters are at San Francisco.

Prince Galitzin, of St. Petersburg, who has been in the city since Saturday, was a caller at the church offices yesterday. He is making a lour of the United States, and his observations are very critical.

Police Clerk James says it has its eyes open and is a good Republican. The it referred to is a brand new boy which came to his house at noon yesterday. Both mother and child are doing nicely. Health Commissioner Dalby, who, with

Rev. H. W. Rankin spoke in his usual pleasing manner last evening at the First Baptist church on the subject, "Who is My Neighbor?" At his meeting tonight Miss Lawson and Mr. J. Woodward will reader a vocal duet. All are welcome, Sheriff Kirkbride, of Cache county is n the city, en route to Provo, where he s taking Mrs. Yerdo Hansen, who is in-tane. The sheriff reports that Cache will give from 2.6 to 500 Democratic ma-ority for Rawlins and the county ticket.

Marriage licenses were yesterday issued to Nathan Gedge, aged 23, of Brighton, and Charlotte A. Lane, aged 22, of this city; Walter B. Lewis, aged 27, of Arizona, and Fannie B. Hawley, aged 25, of this city, and William Courthard, aged 58, and Eliza Coulthard, aged 52, of Scofield.

Neis Orgenson, of Union, was yester-day brought to the city and placed in the county jail, where he will await an ex-amination as to his mental condition. Orgenson is about 60 years of age, and is a fanatical spiritualist, claiming that a heat of souls are against him in whatever undertaking he enlists, and consequently is very excitable, although harmless. A day for his examination before Drs. Worthington and Meacham will be fixed later.

J. H. Butterfield writes to The Hernld from Denver to the effect that in his recent effort to best two men in succession in that sity. Jim Williams, the Utah champion, failed, only because the second man proved to be a sprinter. Mr. Butterfield says that Williams won many admirers by his manly fighting, and Manager Reynolds, of the Central theatre, formerly of this city, has tendered him a benefit for next Friday night.

benefit for next Friday night.

Arbert Richards, son of Samuel Richards of £7 West First South street, was severely injured vesterday morning by falling from a bridge at Leamington, on the line of the Union Pacific railway near Deseret. He fell about sixteen feet, striking his back on a large bridge timber and injured his back so badly that it was found necessary to send him to the hospital at Ogden. He was brought up on the train that arrived at 6:10 last night and was sent north on the 6:15. The news of the sad occurrence was conveyed by a Herald reporter to the father, who will leave on the morning train to attend his son.

The Republican drum corps wender its way dismally down Main street last evening, bearing two transparence one with the legend: "Vote for Frank Cannon," the other: "Workingmen's Republican Rally in the Sixth Ward."

A Herald man joined the small boys who followed the mournful procession to the Sixth ward meeting-house, and sat amidst the throng, which was composed principally of the Republican Glee club, the Criterion quartette, some ladies, one baby and a half dozen workingmen. A. S. Geddes and John M. Zane occupied the bench of state on the stage. D. H. Wenger, president of the Sixth Ward Workingmen's club, and E. J. Eardley, secretary of the same, also occupied seats on the platform.

The Republican Glee club dispensed some small-sized campaign thunder, after which A. S. Geddes talked abouted the white has been grounded and the gamut of human knowledge till he reached the Chinese bill of fare. His audience thought he shared in their exhaustion, but not he. He showed what he knew-or didn't know-about the Wilson bill, statehood, bountles and Utah resources. One of the scintillations that dazzled everybody was that "Utah farmers raise too much of one thing, wheat and grain, and such truck." He announced his predilection for fine raiment as being stronger than that for food, was a question that puzzied his bewildered audience. He told an affecting story about a calf, and finally took his chair of state, after paying a touching tribute to the monumental genius of John M. Zane. form.

This, of course, means the downfall of the Tribune as a leader in its own party and the certain election of Thomas P. Lewis as sheriff.

The R. H. Q. means, I suppose, Republican Head Quarters. It seems that they picked on the wrong man to address. The Republicans claim that it is like the letter received from Tug Wilson a year ago—a myth. In saying this they admit now that the letter was just what was charged by the Democrats at the time (a fraud.) However, it does not matter what they think. The letter was received by Mr. Malmberg, and has the Provo post mark on it and also the Santaquin post mark of the date of October 9. One thing is positively cer-tain and that is if the letter is a fraud. Mr. M. is not a party to it.

DEATH OF HENRY A. WOOLLEY.

Mother on High. following his mother to Closely following his mother to her final rest, Henry Alberto Woolley died yesterday morning at his residence on Third South, surrounded by members of his family. It was a peaceable end of a busy and honorable life, and none there are better prepared to go to their father. Although not entirely unexpected, the death carried heartbreaking sorrow into the home circle and among the many friends of the deceased. It was due to a compilication of kidney and dropsical troubles, superinduced by overwork and exposure.

Just three weeks ago today Mary Ann Woolley, mother of the deceased, was burled, Henry acting as one of the pall hearers. He had been alling for some time previous, but would not give up. The strain was too great, however, and on the day his mother was laid away, his sirength failed, and from that time until his death he was practically confined to his home.

somewhat. But the reprieve was short, and the end came at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

Henry A. Woolley was 32 years of age, having been born in this city on August II. 1851. He was the eideat son of Edwin D. Woolley and Mary Ann Woolley.

The deceased was born in a wagon box on the corner of Third East and Third South, his parents not having secured a regular dwelling at that early day. He was a faithful member of the Chucrch of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and for years held the position of president of the Eighth Quorum of Enders. On account of his peculiar fitness for the office the church authorities refused to advance him in authority, always paying him the highest compliments in the refusals. Scrupujously honest and straightforward in all his fealings, the deceased was highly esteemed in business circles, and became identified with a number of institutions and enterprises. He was one of the original stockholders of the State Bank of Utah, and until recently a director; secretary of the Salt Lake Building and Manifacturing company, and a director of the Co-operative Wagon and Machine company. His death will leave a notable vacancy. He leaves a heartbroken wife and four children to mourn his loss, with a large number of loving brothers and sisters and a host of friends.

The funeral service will be held on Wednesday afternoon at Thirteenth ward meeting house.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—One hundred and fifty thousand from workers of the United States have sent delegates to the united States have sent delegates to the conference which began today at English's hotel, Various branches of the iron industry are represented. Among the organizations which have commissioners at the conferences, are the machinists, the boiler-makers, the pattern-makers, the blacksmiths, the moulders, the metal polishers and the sheet-iron workers. About ten men will come as delegates. Those who have arrived are: James N. O'Connoll, of Richmond, Va.; William Anderson, of St. Louis; W. E. Wilkes, of Pittsburg; Lee Johnson, of Kansas City, and Thomas Wisdon of Pittsburg.

The sole purpose of the gathering of delegates, said one of them, is to bring the iron workers closer together. No strike is contemplated. If a general organization can be effected, the workers will be benefitted and their strength increased.
